PULLED OUT—PAID IN.

How the Magistrates Line Up in the Way of Fees.

(Published by Request of a County Officers.)

At the last October term of the Fiscal Court the Magistrates were allowed an aggregate of $505.00, for fees which they could not collect from parties to cases tried by them.

Of course these fees come directly from the County Treasury, and must be paid by the taxpayers of the county.

At the beginning of the present term of the Mason Circuit Court the several Magistrates reported the amounts they had paid to the Trustee of the Jury Fund on account of fines assessed and collected by them.

Below will be found both phases of the account—the amount drawn out and the amount paid into the public fund:

J. J. Perrine	Drawn Out	Paid In
Powell B. Owens	5.00	12.00
L. L. Melvin	5.00	7.00
Charles W. Williams	5.00	64.00
H. W. Hook	5.00	31.00
T. J. Parnum	12.00	200.00
John T. Drumm	150.00	42.00
Jacob Miller	7.00
Totals	$225.00	$306.00

DOWN IN A VAULT.

There Is Where the Body of Isabella Kerr Was Found.

Special to Public Ledger.

SCOTSDALE, O., Dec. 2d.

A deep fog has settled over this quiet little village by the awful death last Saturday at Portsmouth of little Isabella Kerr.

The mother, who lives at this place, in company with her daughter, was shopping at Portsmouth, when at 12 o'clock, while spending a few minutes with a friend, the little girl was missed.

Search was instituted and kept up until 6 o'clock in the evening, when sixty feet down in the vault and buried six feet beneath the accumulations of that horrible place was the lifeless body of little Belle found.

A great mystery surrounds this affair, as it doesn't look reasonable that she could have fallen into this place without some help.

The father is the operator here on the Scioto Valley Railroad. He was the first person to think of the vault and sent word to have it examined.

The burial took place at Waverly, O., Monday.

Just see what an attractive bargain Hinchinger & Co. offer in the way of Overcoats, just the kind for this cold wave weather.

Dr. J. J. Werner the Dentist will be at Stonewall House, Mayfield, December 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th, 1895, prepared to practice dentistry in all its branches.

During the prevalence of a gripe those who made use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral found it prompt to set and sure to cure. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in all diseases of the throat and lungs, and the only remedy successful in consumption.

Freight Traffic Manager W. P. Walker of the C. and O. says there is no truth in the report that he is to be Freight Traffic Manager of the Big Four, in connection with his present position. "I keep me walking the floor now about eighteen hours out of twenty-four to look after the C. and O. business, not saying anything about the work that would require my attention on the Big Four," said Mr. Walker.

THE MORAL'S PLAIN.

These Young Men Don't Smoke Cigarettes and Play Duce.

The People's Traction Company of Philadelphia not long ago accepted the resignations of fifteen of the best conductors on its lines, and did so with regret. Following the name of each of the men who resigned, the words "Resigned, O. K." were entered on the company's record book. That meant that any of the fifteen who applied for work in the near future could get it if there was the slightest chance.

The young men were all students in the Jefferson Medical College, and the Superintendent of the line says they made the best conductors employed by the company. All told this summer, more than fifty college students were on the payroll of the company. Their earnings averaged about $15 a week, and as they were able to live for about $5 a week, most of them have money enough to pay their expenses this year at college.

R. T. Marshall of Mt. Carmel sold 90 head of fat cattle, weighing an average of 1,567, at 5 cents per pound. They were bought principally at two year old for $10 to $15 cents. The sale resulted in a profit of $3,700 for grazing and feeding, and Mr. Marshall has about 3,000 bushels of corn left in the crib.

The old story of Prometheus is a parallel. Prometheus was on terms of intimacy with the gods. From them he stole fire and gave it to man. For this sin he was bound to the rocks of Mount Caucasus and vultures were set upon him. They only ate his liver. This grew again so fast as it was pecked away. Are his sufferings to be imagined?

Take a modern interpretation of the parable. There is no cooking without fire. In cooking and eating the mischief lies. The stomach is overtaxed, the bowels become clogged, they cannot dispose of the food that is given them. The impurities back up on the liver. Then come the vultures—the tortments of a diseased liver. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is more than a cure of the vultures of dyspepsia and its kindred diseases. There is no more need of suffering from dyspepsia than there is of hanging one's self. Sold by all medicine dealers the world over.

WE'RE FOR AMERICA'S AMERICANS!

SENATOR THURSTON of Nebraska says the Republicans of his state are for McKinley "first, last and all the time," and the danger appears to be epidemic.

JACK SHEERAN, a prominent printer and G. A. R. man of Lexington, is an applicant for the position of Receiver at the Eastern Asylum. Jack is a trustful Republican, and one of the best men we know; and if Governor BRADLEY rewards him it will be a favor most worthily bestowed.

LESLIE county gets the silk flag offered by Governor-elect BRADLEY for the largest per cent. cast for him. She gave him 90 per cent., 756 votes, and HARDIN only 70. Jackson was next best with 59 per cent. Owsley and Whitley were third and fourth, respectively, in the contest. The flag will doubtless be presented before the campaign of 1906.

Mr. JOHN T. GILLESPIE of Georgetown, an experienced newspaperman, is a candidate for Recording Clerk of the lower house of the next General Assembly of Kentucky. The "press gang" did their full share in the late campaign, and much of the credit for success is due to them; but there's so little gratitude in politics that the true laborer in the vineyard is often set aside.

The United States Life Saving Service, like the Postoffice Department, is one of those institutions that performs its duties with the highest efficiency and fidelity. Last year the Government life-savers rescued 5,382 persons and saved property valued at $6,145,085. The total number of lives saved since 1871 is 67,258, which is about the strength of the Union Army at Gettysburg.

At the Atlanta Exposition Senator TILMAN contributed to the celebration of South Carolina Day in a speech denouncing the President and Governor EVANS proclaimed that the South proposed to rule this country. EVANS is, evidently, a warrior from "wayback" with his mouth. It's dollars to doughnuts that he was safe at home when the loyal sons of the South were facing Yankee cannon.

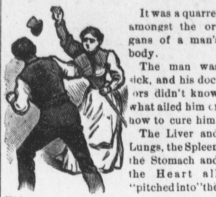

The Constitution of Kentucky provides that if a vacancy occurs in the office of Governor within two years after the election, another election must be held to fill the vacancy. But if a vacancy occurs after the lapse of two years, then the Lieutenant-Governor becomes Governor. Hence, should Governor BRADLEY be chosen Vice-President next year there would be a new election for Governor.

The present Administration is using every device to get and keep gold in the Treasury. First, Secretary CARLISLE paid expressage one way where gold was sent in exchange for greenbacks; then he agreed to pay expressage both ways. First, he appealed to the banks to send him gold; then he began begging private individuals to help him. Seems to THE LEDGER that no such pitiful cries for help were ever heard during the Republican management of Uncle Sam's finances.

AN ARGUMENT.

THEY ALMOST CAME TO BLOWS—THE TROUBLE SOON DISCOVERED AND EVERYTHING NOW ALL RIGHT.

It was a quarrel amongst the organs of a man's body. The man was sick, and his doctors didn't know what ailed him, how to cure him. The Liver and Lungs, the Spleen and the Stomach and the Heart all "pitched into" the Kidneys.

"It's your fault," said the Liver. "You have been too long to do and you don't do it. It is your place to filter all the poisons out and impurities out of the body, and you are not doing it!"

"As a consequence," said the Stomach, "we are all being clogged, poisoned and irritated. I am irritable and only half digest the food they are forcing into me. Here's the Liver all clogged and torpid, the Lungs are all choked up, we don't get half enough oxygen, the Head is aching, the Nerves tingling, the Back is aching, and the poor heart is laboring like a sled dog."

"Even the Joints and Muscles cry out with rheumatic pains," said the Kidneys. "We can't do it," said the Kidneys. "We can't do impossibilities. We are sick and weak ourselves and cannot do our work. Of course, these poisons collect in the blood and irritate and discompose you. The moment we stop work you feel it. Your health always did and always will depend on our activity."

And just then an ordinary, every day, common-sense doctor who knew his business was called in and prescribed Dr. Hobb's Spargus Kidney Pills.

The Kidneys promptly responded and set cheerfully to work with renewed strength and vigor; the uric acid, the waste products of decay and of fever, the ashes of digestion and all the poisons and impurities in the blood were cast out.

"Well, that's something like it," said the Lungs. "I'll pitch in and do my work now," said the Stomach.

"What a relief," said the Liver and the Heart, and the Joints and Muscles joined the chorus.

The quarrel was over. It was a happy family, working harmoniously once more.

This sounds like a fairy story, but it isn't. It's cold, hard, solid facts and common sense.

And you can prove it to your satisfaction at any time for 50 cents.

Thurman, a tenant upon one of his farms, became involved in a quarrel over a settlement Monday morning, when the latter drew a knife and stabbed Dunning half a dozen times in the side and arm, inflicting fatal wounds. The trouble grew out of a white cap notice to leave the neighborhood received by Thurman, who accused Dunning of being the author of it. Thurman escaped.

FIFTY-FOURTH.
Congress Began its Sessions With Crowded Galleries.
"Can" Reed Once More Wields the Gavel in the House.

There are Many New Faces in Both Branches.—In Point of Age the Present Congress is the Youngest Known to History of American Legislation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The Fifty-fourth congress began its session at noon Monday with crowded galleries.

The new congress was called to order with democratic ascendancy in the senate on the point of disappearing and the house overwhelmingly republican. There were fifteen new faces among the senators, not counting Mr. Chilton, of Texas, who occupies a seat he once held before by appointment, and there were in addition thirteen re-elected senators to be sworn in by vice-President Stevenson as their own successors.

Of the holding-over senators, whose terms will expire two years from now, some of the most prominent are Blackburn, Brice, Hill, Voorhees, Vest and Peffer.

MR. REED RULES THE ROOST.

In point of age the present house is the youngest known to the history of American legislation. There was Mahan, of New York, the successor of Daniel Lodge; the successor of Indiana, the successor of Judge Holman; George B. McClellan, Jr., filling the seat held in the last congress by Bourke Cockran, of New York; Robert W. Taylor, of Ohio, representing the district made famous by McKinley; Hugh R. Belknap, who defeated McGowan from the Third Chicago district; Dayton, of West Virginia, who succeeded Wm. L. Wilson, now postmaster general; Wm. E. Barrett, of Massachusetts, the young editor of the Boston Advertiser. These and others of the younger element were early on the floor.

Then there were among their elders: William C. Owens, of Kentucky, who defeated the silver-tongued Breckinridge; Chester L. Long, of Kansas, the successor of Jerry Simpson; the populist; J. G. Spencer, the successor of Gen. Hooker, of Mississippi; James A. Connolly, who ousted the place of William M. Springer, Walter Evans, of Kentucky, one of the "300" at Chicago, and subsequently President Arthur's confidential informant; Frederick Lieberman, of Philadelphia, representing Samuel J. Randall's old district, a district which never before sent a republican to congress, and many others.

Many of the desks in the senate were covered with flowers. That of Senator Spooner, of Massachusetts, being almost completely hidden. The desks of Senators Cullom and Palmer, of Illinois, were each decorated with a bunch of magnificent yellow chrysanthemums.

Senator Shoup, of Idaho, was the recipient of a novelty in the shape of a fancy basket of fruit, consisting of grapes, oranges, pears, pomegranates and Japanese persimmons, with a decorative sprinkling of bonbons.

Never, perhaps, in the history of congress has there been so large a number of spectators gathered in the galleries, halls and corridors.

Rev. Mr. Bagby, chaplain in the last house, offered prayer as follows: "Almighty God, whose Kingdom reigneth over us, as we meet together in these halls of legislation, we bow before thy name on our lips and acknowledge our dependence on thee. Graciously, then, bestow Thy richest blessings on the United States and its cabinet, the senate and house of representatives and all who administer the affairs of this nation. Bless Thou the hearts of our rulers. And may all men learn to praise Thee for the riches of grace in Jesus Christ, our Lord Amen."

Then Mr. Kerr, clerk of the last house, called the members to order and the roll of the states was called, 341 members responding.

Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio (rep.), rose and said: "I have the honor to present the name of Thomas Brackett Reed, a representative in this body from the state of Maine, for the office of speaker."

Great applause greeted him. Then Mr. Sayres, of Texas, (dem.), nominated in the same brief terms Charles F. Crisp, Mr. Kern, of Nebraska, (pop.), nominated John C. Bell, of Colorado. The nomination was greeted with a laugh of derision from the republicans.

Messrs. Hopkins, of Illinois (rep.); Loud, of California (rep.); Catelhings, of Mississippi (dem.), and Erdman, of Pennsylvania (dem.), were appointed tellers, and the voting proceeded.

The only break from the political truce was when Mr. Crane, of Texas (dem.), cast his vote, not for Mr. Crisp, but for Mr. Culbertson, of Texas (dem.).

When the roll call was finished the result was announced by the tellers as follows: For Mr. Reed, 234 votes; for Mr. Crisp, 95; for Mr. Bell, 6; for Mr. Culbertson, 1. Total, 335 votes.

The oath of office was administered to Mr. Reed by Mr. Harner, of Pennsylvania (rep.), the member who has had the longest continuous service.

THE PROGRESS.
MINER'S OLD CORNER STAND.

TO REORGANIZE

The Senate in Both Committees and Elective Officers,

And Take the Senate Management Out of the Hands of Older Members.

A Few of the Leading Western Senators Have Taken Action to Reorganize the Senate. Others Are of Waiting Until a More Convenient Season.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The caucus held Monday afternoon by the republican senators, although devoid of positive action, demonstrated the fact that a probably successful attempt will soon be made to reorganize the senate in both committees and elective officers. The senators were not in session more than half an hour, but during that brief period there was a general clearing of the atmosphere, which had been somewhat obscured by the action of a few senators who met Saturday night for the purpose of preparing a plan of action that should result in taking the management of the senate out of the hands of the older members.

The result of Monday afternoon's talk is a reconciliation of conflicting elements and the making of a sincere desire on the part of all present to that which is for the best interests of the whole party. The caucus met with a friendly atmosphere, and in the minds of some to what Messrs. Hunsbrough, Pettigrew, Clark, Mantle, Dubois, Chandler, Gallinger and Proctor, who hold the chairmanship of the committee, intended doing in the matter of reorganization. A few of the leaders of these western senators were determined to force action on the senators Proctor and Chandler favored waiting until a more convenient season and were not prepared to go to the extreme to which the course of the others pointed.

Mr. Dubois was opposed to permitting the chairman of the caucus, Mr. Sherman, appoint the committee to fill the existing committee vacancies, as he looked upon this as inimical to the interests of the younger members. He had a resolution providing for the selection of a committee of nine for this purpose by the caucus. Mr. Hoar had a resolution prepared instructing senator Sherman, as chairman of the caucus, to name the committee, but neither proposition was submitted. It is said that the republican caucus would quite plainly that the caucus would not permit Mr. Dubois' plan to prevail and Mr. Sherman's privilege be set aside. It was finally agreed that it would be better to wait until a future day for the determination of the whole subject.

Senator Frye was suggested as president pro tempore and no other name was mentioned. He will be nominated, it is said, and it is deemed useless to do anything in the matter Monday, for the reason that no president pro tempore can be elected so long as the vice-president fills the chair. If the republicans can show the majority that they have enough votes to elect the president pro tempore the election will be held. It is understood that Mr. Sherman is to consult with the republican caucus chairman and arrange for a time for this vote to be taken. If, by that time, the republicans have agreed upon a candidate for the position, the whole ticket will be placed in the field. Of course, in order to reorganize the senate the republicans must have two votes outside of those in their own ranks and Senator Stewart and Jones, of Nevada, are generally looked upon as the men who will vote with the republicans on organization. Mr. Stewart is bitterly opposed to Mr. Dubois' plan, because he lays at the door of the young senator from Idaho the blame for his removal from the committee on appropriations. This was one reason that actuated the committee in proceeding cautiously. Again, it was pointed out that the republican men were endeavoring to secure an organization on monetary lines, and that the republican and democratic ticket and the democrats were not prepared to surrender their control. The silver republicans and democrats Monday morning looking at the republican plan that they could not join in any effort to organize on silver lines and as soon as the populists, who are the main advocates of this plan, are elected, they may not be successful. It is claimed that they will divide according to their predilections for the two great parties Messrs. Allen and Kyle, of the democrats, and Messrs. Jones, Stewart, Butler and Peffer with the republicans. The republicans need two out of these four votes. Republican say that all differences will be reconciled and that when they place a ticket in the field it will have the necessary majority. It is hardly possible, however, that this reorganization will be effected before the holidays.

The bill is brief and is as follows: "No is enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled: That the courts of the United States, sitting as courts of equity, shall not have jurisdiction to punish for contempt any person charged with the violation of any order or decree of courts whose acts in the premises constitute, arise out of or are connected with the commission of any offense indictable under the law of the United States or of the state in which the offense is committed, but in every such case the offense against such court shall be deemed merged in the greater offense against the state or the United States, as the case may be."

MRS. MATILDA J. STOCKTON.

Death This Morning of This Most Estimable Woman.

Mrs. Matilda J. Stockton died at her home on West Second street at 2:30 this morning, aged about 65.

She was attacked on Saturday with pneumonia, and grew rapidly worse until the end.

Mrs. Stockton was the widow of the late Colonel J. M. Stockton, who was Postmaster of this city for more than twenty years.

She was a sister of the late General William Nelson and Colonel Anderson D. Nelson of the United States Army, and her only surviving brother, Hon. Thomas H. Nelson of Terre Haute, Ind., ex-Minister to Peru and Chili and Mexico.

Six children survive—Mrs. E. A. Robinson and Mr. Will N. Stockton of this city, Messrs. Robert D. and Thomas N. Stockton of Denver, Louis B. Stockton of Covington and J. M. Stockton of Cincinnati.

She was a sterling Christian character, whose impress is left upon all who knew her, a woman of extreme modesty, who shrank from everything tending to set her apart.

The funeral will not take place until the arrival of her sons from the West.

At 5:15 yesterday afternoon Master J. Moreau Stockton, aged about 8 years, died at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Matilda J. Stockton, on West Second street, of dropsical affection.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. and Jennie Stockton of Denver, Col., and was brought here a few days since, in hopes that the change of climate might benefit him.

Deceased was an unusually bright little fellow, and a great favorite with every one.

No arrangements have been made for the funeral, pending the arrival of his father from Denver.

NEWEST BOATS FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

This has been an extremely disastrous trip, taking in consideration the amount of coal on its way down.

It is estimated that at least 500,000 bushels of coal have been lost up to this time. The towboat Advance with eleven barges of coal belonging to the Advance Coal Co. of Pittsburgh struck the Sand creek bar near Ravenswood, W. Va., at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, piling up all of them and damaging the boat so that she sank.

The Mariner, the first towboat to pass this city of the Pittsburgh fleet, sank two barges just around the bend below the city yesterday morning by striking a snag left there by the Woodruff.

The following are a few of the forty-eight Pittsburgh and Kanawha boats that have passed since yesterday morning: Mariner, E. A. Andrews, Bob Pritchard, Cruiser, Mount Clare, Bertha, John Moir, Charles Brown, Tom Dodsworth, Enterprise, Fred Wilson, Alice Brown, Fannie, New Haven, Dick Fulton, Raymond Horner, John W. Ailer, Pacific and Stella Moran.

The gage shows 10 feet and rising. The Keystone State is due up tonight for Pittsburgh.

The Henry M. Stanley will do the Pomeroy work tonight.

Under the direction of Captain Scott, who has superintended the construction of the machinery of the new Virginia, steam was raised on the boat Saturday afternoon, and the engines were worked for the first time. The wheel was turned over with twenty pounds of steam. A pressure of ninety pounds was obtained, and the test was very satisfactory. The new whistle was tried, and has a very musical sound.

"Saved My Life"

A VETERAN'S STORY.

"Several years ago, while in Fort Snelling, Minn., I caught a severe cold, attended with a terrible cough, that allowed me no rest day or night. The doctors after exhausting their remedies, pronounced my case hopeless, saying they could do no more for me. At this time a bottle of Cherry Pectoral was sent to me by a friend who urged me to take it, which I did, and soon after I was greatly relieved, and in a short time was completely cured. I have never had much of a cough since that time, and I firmly believe Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—W. H. WARD, 8 Quimby Ave., Lowell, Mass.

AYER'S
